

Freedom of Information Request

Request:

Please email me the rules and regulations of added years contract. Also please email me your complaint procedure and details to whom I should write a complaint.

Status: CompleteResponse Date: 18/05/2009

The NHS Pension Scheme is a defined benefit scheme that provides members with benefits payable on retirement, incapacity, death or withdrawal from the National Health Service (NHS) in England and Wales. There are also provision for increasing benefits that are defined within the Regulations.

The full entitlements are set out in the National Health Service Pension Scheme Regulations which are available to view on the website at www.nhsbsa.nhs.uk/Pensions/Regulations.aspx

Unfortunately we do not hold copies that can be sent, but these can be purchased if required from The Stationary Office online at www.tsoshop.co.uk or by telephone on 0870 600 5522.