1	New overview of your organisation template	We've added a new feature on the employer dashboard. Super users can create a template that provides an overview of their organisation. The overview template will prepopulate the 'Give an overview of your organisation' text box when users are creating a new job advert. Users will still be able to edit and update the text when creating a new advert.	Provides the user with a pre populated overview of their organisation.
2	Remote interview invites	The employers will now be able to set up remote interviews and send the invites to the shortlisted applicants. The remote interview invites will not contain any interview location. The employers will need contact applicants directly with the details of how to join the remote interview.	Employers can set up remote interviews.
