NHS Pensions - Establishing the actual rate of pensionable earnings for the initial adult dependant’s pension 2015 Scheme

Was the member absent on NIL or reduced pay at date of death?

Did member’s pay fluctuate?

Initial adult dependant’s pension is the rate of pensionable pay at date of death

Was the absence due to illness or injury?

Did the member’s pay fluctuate?

Initial adult dependant’s pension is the rate of pensionable pay the member would have received had they been on full pay on the day they died

Initial adult dependant’s pension is the rate of pensionable pay the member would have received had they been on full pay on the day they died, adjusted by any increments or pay awards effective after any sick leave started