Civil partnerships and marriage of same sex couples

2A. (1) In these Regulations, except as provided in paragraph (5), a reference to—

(a) civil partnership is to be read as including a reference to marriage of a same sex couple and a reference to civil partners and a person who is in a civil partnership is to be construed accordingly;

(b) a person who is living with another person as if they were in a civil partnership is to be read as including a reference to a person who is living with another person of the same sex as if they were married.

(2) Where paragraph (1) requires a reference to be read in a particular way, any related reference (such as a reference to a civil partnership that has ended, a reference to a person whose civil partnership has ended, or a reference to persons formerly living together as civil partners) is to be read accordingly.

(3) For the purposes of paragraphs (1) and (2) it does not matter how a reference is expressed.

(4) The application of the Marriage (Same Sex Couples) Act 2013 in relation to these Regulations is modified so that—

(a) section 11(1) and (2) has effect subject to paragraphs (1) to (3); and

(b) Schedule 3 does not apply to the interpretation of these Regulations.

(5) In this regulation, “civil partnership” and “civil partners” have the meanings given by section 1 of the Civil Partnership Act 2004.

3 Persons to whom the Regulations apply

These Regulations shall apply to an officer who on ceasing to be employed in the employment of an employing authority-

(a) becomes entitled to benefits in accordance with regulation E3 of the Pension Scheme Regulations; or

(b) notifies the Secretary of State in accordance with regulation E3B of the Pension Scheme Regulations that he wishes regulation E3 of those Regulations to apply to him.

4 Payment of compensation

(1) Subject to the provisions of these Regulations, an entitled officer shall be entitled, with effect from the material date, to receive from the Secretary of State compensation in accordance with paragraph Warning: this text has been prepared by Department of Health officials. Whilst every effort has been taken to ensure that it is accurate, it should not be relied on as a definitive text of the Regulations. (2) and, where he is also entitled to a lump sum under regulation E6 of the Pension Scheme Regulations (lump sum on retirement), paragraph (3).

(2) The compensation payable in accordance with this paragraph shall consist of an annual allowance at a rate equal to the rate by which that pension would be increased in accordance with the Pension Scheme Regulations, if-

(a) a period equal to the period with which he is credited under regulation 5 of these Regulations were added to the pensionable service in respect of which that pension is payable; and

(b) for the purposes of regulation C1 of the Pension Scheme Regulations, the whole period is treated as if it was added to the entitled officer's pensionable service in respect of pensionable employment before 1st April 2008.

(3) The compensation payable in accordance with this paragraph shall consist of a lump sum equal to the amount by which the lump sum payable under regulation E6 of those Regulations would be increased in accordance with those Regulations if a period equal to the period with which he is credited under regulation 5 were added to the pensionable service in respect of which that lump sum is payable.

5 Crediting of additional period of service

(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), for the purpose of calculating the amount of the annual allowance payable in accordance with regulation 4(2) and, where applicable, the amount of the lump sum payable in accordance with regulation 4(3)-

(a) where the total amount of-

(i) an entitled officer's pensionable service, including any service to which regulation R4(5) of the Pension Scheme Regulations (members doing more than one job) applies; and

(ii) any relevant optant service, is not more than 10 years, the entitled officer shall be credited with an additional period of service equal to the aggregate of such pensionable service and any such relevant optant service; or

(b) where the total amount of-

(i) an entitled officer's pensionable service, including any service to which regulation R4(5) of the Pension Scheme Regulations applies; and

(ii) any relevant optant service, is more than 10 years, the entitled officer shall be credited with an additional period of service of 10 years.

(1A) Paragraphs (1B) and (1C) shall apply where an entitled officer becomes so entitled on, or after, 1st December 2006 but before 1st July 2007.

Warning: this text has been prepared by Department of Health officials. Whilst every effort has been taken to ensure that it is accurate, it should not be relied on as a definitive text of the Regulations. (1B) The additional period of service an entitled officer shall be credited with where regulation 5(9) does not apply to him at 30th September 2006, shall be equal to R and determined by the formula-

P is the additional service he would have been credited with applying paragraph (1)(a) or, as the case may be, (1)(b) to his service at 30th September 2006 as if he became so entitled at that date; and

Q is the period commencing on, or after, 1st October 2006 and ending on the day on which he does in fact become so entitled.

(1C) Where regulation 5(9) does apply to an entitled officer at 30th September 2006-

(a) the additional period of service he shall be credited with shall be equal to P (as defined in paragraph (1B)), and

(b) the amount of compensation payable to him shall be determined in accordance with that regulation except that the "relevant amount" referred to in that regulation shall be reduced by the fraction-

and R and P have the same meaning as in paragraph (1B).

(1D) Paragraphs (1E) to (1H) shall apply where an entitled officer becomes so entitled on, or after, 1st July 2007 but before 1st October 2011.

(1E) The additional period of service an entitled officer shall be credited with where regulation 5(9) does not apply to him at 30th September 2006, shall be equal to U and determined by the formula-

$$S - T = U$$

Where-

S (except where paragraph (1F) applies) is the additional service he would have been credited with applying paragraph (1)(a) or, as the case may be, (1)(b) to his service at 30th September 2006 as if he became so entitled at that date; and

T is the period commencing on, or after, 1st October 2006 and ending on the day on which he does in fact become so entitled.

(1F) For the purposes of paragraph (1E) only, where the additional service an entitled officer would have been credited with applying paragraph (1)(a) or, as the case may be, (1)(b) to his service as at 30th September 2006 as if he became so entitled at that date is greater than 5 years (but not otherwise)-

(a) the excess over 5 years shall be reduced at the rate of 1/60th for each complete month commencing on, or after, 1st October 2006 and ending on the date on which he does in fact become so entitled (with any part day being rounded up to the nearest whole day) ("the relevant fraction"); and

(b) the result shall be S.

(1G) Where regulation 5(9) does apply to an entitled officer as at 30th September 2006-

(a) the additional period of service he shall be credited with shall be equal to S (as defined in paragraph (1E)), and

(b) the amount of compensation payable to him shall be determined in accordance with that regulation except that the "relevant amount" referred to in that regulation shall be reduced by amount X.

(1H) Amount X shall be-

(a) V (except where (b) applies);

(b) the product of V+W where the additional service a member would be credited with applying paragraph (1)(a) or, as the case may be, (1)(b) to his service at 30th September 2006 as if he became so entitled at that date is greater than 5 years (but not otherwise),

where-

$$V = \left( \frac{\text{the relevant amount} \times 1825}{S(\text{in days})} \right) \times \frac{T(\text{in days})}{1825}$$

$$W = \left( \frac{\text{the relevant amount} \times (S(\text{in days}) - 1825)}{S(\text{in days})} \right) \times \text{the relevant fraction}$$ and S and T have the same meaning as in paragraph (1E).

(1I) Where it is more beneficial to an entitled officer to whom paragraphs (1A) to (1C) of this regulation apply-

(a) those paragraphs shall be ignored; and

(b) he shall be credited with additional service calculated by applying paragraph (1)(a) or, as the case may be, (1)(b) to his service at 30th September 2006 and as if he became so entitled at that date.

(2) The period of additional service credited to an entitled officer shall not exceed the amount necessary to make his total pensionable service reach-

(a) 40 years; or

Warning: this text has been prepared by Department of Health officials. (b) the maximum length of pensionable service he would have been able to accrue had he remained in pensionable employment until retirement age, whichever is the lesser.

(3) In determining the additional period of service to be credited to a mental health officer under paragraphs (1) and (7), no account shall be taken of the provisions in regulation R3(5) of the Pension Scheme Regulations (mental health officer - doubling of pensionable service).

(4) For the purposes of paragraphs (1) to (3) above-

(a) "relevant optant service" means-

(i) service in respect of which an entitled officer was subject to regulation 48 of the National Health Service (Superannuation) Regulations 1980 (persons subject to non-statutory superannuation schemes and arrangements) and which terminated within the 12 months immediately before the beginning of his pensionable service; and

(ii) in the case of a person who became an officer in the circumstances described in regulation 2(2) of the National Health Service (Superannuation) Regulations 1980 (interpretation), any service accrued in the employment of a local authority by virtue of which he was, immediately before becoming an officer, a member of such a scheme as is referred to in regulation 48 of those Regulations;

(b) "retirement age" means, in relation to an entitled officer, the age at which, under any written condition of employment, he may be required to retire or, if there is no such condition, the age of 65.

(5) Where-

(a) an entitled officer has received-

(i) a redundancy payment under the Employment Rights Act 1996; or

(ii) a corresponding payment under the arrangements of the Whitley Councils for the Health Services of Great Britain; or

(iii) a payment made by virtue of any arrangement made pursuant to paragraph 17(2) of Schedule 2 to the National Health Service and Community Care Act 1990 (National Health Service Trusts- general powers), in respect of the cessation of the employment referred to in regulation 3; and

(b) that payment has not been reduced to take account of any additional period of service with which the officer may have been credited, any such additional period of service shall not exceed 6 years and 243 days.

(6) For the purposes of this regulation, where the pensionable service of an entitled officer consists of or includes pensionable service in part-time employment, such service shall count at its full length.

Warning: this text has been prepared by Department of Health officials. Whilst every effort has been taken to ensure that it is accurate, it should not be relied on as a definitive text of the Regulations. It has been produced solely to help people understand the Regulations as amended. It is not intended for use in any other Context.

(7) Where the pensionable service of an entitled officer includes service in the employment of an employing authority before 4th November 1980, that officer shall be entitled to compensation calculated in accordance with the provisions of regulation 5(1) (persons who became entitled officers between 29th October 1976 and 3rd November 1980) and regulation 5(4) (service before 4th November 1980) of the previous Regulations if such a calculation would place that entitled officer in a better position than he would have been in had the compensation been calculated in accordance with this regulation.

(8) Where the amount of any benefit to which an entitled officer is or may become entitled under the Pension Scheme Regulations is or may be supplemented under regulation 49 or 50 of the National Health Service (Superannuation) Regulations 1980 (supplementary, or discretionary, payments in respect of certain officers) at the discretion of the Secretary of State, the Secretary of State may in the same manner as under regulation 49 or 50 of those Regulations, make supplementary or discretionary payments to such extent as he considers appropriate in addition to any compensation payable to the entitled officer under these Regulations.

(9) For the purpose of regulation 6(1), where any part of the pensionable service of an entitled officer to whom there is payable a pension under regulation E3 of the Pension Scheme Regulations is service in part-time employment, the compensation payable in respect of the service credited under this regulation shall not exceed the relevant amount.

(10) In this regulation-

"the relevant amount" means the amount which bears the same proportion to the amount which would have been payable had the service not been part-time as the whole-time equivalent of an entitled officer's pensionable service in respect of part-time employment bears to comparable whole-time employment; and

"the whole-time equivalent" is calculated using the method described in regulation R5(3) of the Pension Scheme Regulations (part-time employment).

6 Calculation of compensation

(1) Subject to paragraph (2), the compensation payable under regulation 4 in respect of the additional period of service of an entitled officer shall be calculated in like manner as his pension under regulation E3 of the Pension Scheme Regulations and, where applicable, his lump sum on retirement under regulation E6 of those Regulations or, where a transfer payment has been made in his case under Part M of those Regulations (transfers and buy-outs), the pension and, where applicable, lump sum on retirement which would have been payable but for his pension benefits having been transferred to another scheme by means of that transfer payment.

(2) Where regulation R3 of the Pension Scheme Regulations or any corresponding provision of any other scheme in which the entitled officer has retained rights to benefit by virtue of an option exercised under regulation 44 of the National Health Service (Superannuation) Regulations 1980 applies to an entitled officer, the compensation in respect of his additional period of service shall be calculated as if neither paragraph (5)(b) of regulation R3 nor any corresponding provision applied to him.

Whilst every effort has been taken to ensure that it is accurate, it should not be relied on as a definitive text of the Regulations. It has been produced solely to help people understand the Regulations as amended. It is not intended for use in any other Context.

(3) Subject to paragraph (4), where an entitled officer is in receipt of any payment specified in paragraph (6) there shall be deducted from the additional period of service which, but for this paragraph, would have counted as pensionable service by virtue of paragraph (1) or (7) of regulation 5, any additional years or deemed added years which were taken into account for the purposes of the calculation of that payment.

(4) The Secretary of State may direct that the deduction in accordance with paragraph (3) should not be made, or that a lesser number of years should be deducted, where-

(a) an entitled officer is in receipt of a payment specified in paragraph (6); and

(b) there are differences between-

(i) the terms of the employment in respect of which that payment is received; and

(ii) the terms of the employment referred to in regulation 3; and

(c) by reason of those differences, the deduction would be disproportionately large.

(5) For the purposes of paragraphs (3) and (4)-

(a) "additional years", in the case of an entitled officer who receives a payment referred to in paragraph (6), means the additional period of service with which that officer was credited for the purpose of making that payment and which had on the calculation of that payment the corresponding effect that the additional period of service has on the annual allowance payable under these Regulations;

(b) any additional years or deemed added years shall not be taken into account if these have been taken into account for the purpose of reducing any payment specified in paragraph (6);

(c) where a payment specified in paragraph (6) has been enhanced by a sum, being a fraction of the annual rate of remuneration, calculated in sixtieths, each one sixtieth shall be deemed to be an added year for the purposes of this regulation and the expression "deemed added years" shall be construed accordingly;

(d) the additional period of service shall be deemed to commence on the material date;

(e) the additional years or deemed added years shall be deemed to commence on the day after the occurrence of the event in respect of which the payment specified in paragraph (6) became payable;

(f) any additional years or deemed added years which relate to a period before the material date shall not be taken into account.

(6) The payments referred to in paragraphs (3) to (5) are-

(a) an annual allowance payable under these Regulations;

(b) any annual compensation payable immediately or prospectively under the local government compensation regulations or any other regulations made under section 24 of the Superannuation Act 1972 (compensation for loss of office, etc.);

(c) any annual compensation payable under a scheme made under section 1 of the Superannuation Act 1972 (superannuation schemes as respects civil servants, etc.) or under article 3 of the Superannuation (Northern Ireland) Order 1973;

(d) any annual benefit payable under the early retirement regulations; or

(e) any other payment provided for by regulations which have like effect to the regulations referred to in sub-paragraphs (a), (b) or (d).

7 Partial surrender of annual allowance

Where, under regulation J1 of the Pension Scheme Regulations (allocation of part of pension), an entitled officer may surrender part of his pension in favour of his spouse or civil partner or any other dependant, he may surrender part of the annual allowance which is payable to him under these Regulations, after any reduction under regulation 10, on the like terms and conditions, and in consideration of the like payments by the Secretary of State, as if the said annual allowance were a pension to which he had become entitled under the Pension Scheme Regulations.

8 Compensation payable to widow, widower, surviving civil partner or dependants

(1) Where an entitled officer dies, payments in accordance with this regulation shall be made by the Secretary of State to or for the benefit of that officer's widow, widower, surviving civil partner, child or other dependant or to that officer's personal representative.

(2) If the widow, widower, surviving civil partner, child or other dependant of an entitled officer is entitled to a benefit under the Pension Scheme Regulations, or would have been so entitled if that officer's benefits had not been transferred to another scheme, the widow, widower, surviving civil partner, child or other dependant, as the case may be, shall be entitled to receive compensation equal to the benefits he would have received if the compensation payable to the entitled officer under regulation 4 immediately before death had been a pension which was payable under the Pension Scheme Regulations.

(3) Any compensation payable to or for the benefit of a widow, widower, surviving civil partner, child or other dependant under this regulation shall cease to be payable on the date on which the benefit under the Pension Scheme Regulations ceases, or would have ceased, to be payable.

(4) Where-

(a) any benefit under the Pension Scheme Regulations is payable to any person on behalf of a child or other dependant in accordance with those Regulations; or

(b) the entitled officer's benefits have been transferred to another scheme and any benefits under the Pension Scheme Regulations would have been payable to any such person if those Regulations had continued to apply in relation to that officer;

any compensation payable under this regulation to a child or other dependant shall be paid to that person on behalf of the child or other dependant in the like manner and for the like period as is provided in the Pension Scheme Regulations.

9 Compensation where lump sum on death becomes payable

(1) Where the widow, widower, surviving civil partner, nominee or the personal representative of an entitled officer is entitled to receive a lump sum on death under regulation F5 of the Pension Scheme Regulations (payment of lump sum), that widow, widower, surviving civil partner, nominee or personal representative shall be entitled under these Regulations to an amount equal to the amount by which such a lump sum on death would have been increased if, for the purpose of calculating the lump sum on death-

(a) there were also taken into account the additional period of service credited to the entitled officer as if it were pensionable service;

(b) the annual allowance or lump sum payable under regulation 4 were treated as if it were a pension payable under regulation E3 or, where applicable, a lump sum on retirement payable under regulation E6 of the Pension Scheme Regulations; and

(c) where any proportion of an annual allowance has been surrendered under regulation 7, there were taken into account the amount which would have been paid but for such a surrender.

(2) For the purpose of this regulation "nominee" means a person specified in a notice given by an entitled officer to the Secretary of State for the purpose of regulation F5(3A) of the Pension Scheme Regulations.

10 Adjustments of compensation

(1) Where an entitled officer enters further employment with an employing authority on or after the material date and that further employment has ceased, any compensation payable under these Regulations based on the additional period of service shall be reduced in accordance with Schedule 1 to these Regulations to take account of any benefit payable under the Pension Scheme Regulations in respect of that further employment.

(2) Where, in respect of an entitled officer, the aggregate of-

(a) his pensionable service on the material date;

(b) any additional period of service credited to him under these Regulations; and

(c) any further pensionable service accrued by him on or after the material date, exceeds the number of years of service that would have been pensionable under regulation C2(3) of the Pension Scheme Regulations (limitations on pensionable service) had the aggregate of his service been pensionable service under those Regulations, the annual allowance which he is entitled to receive under these Regulations shall be reduced by an amount equal to the compensation payable under regulation 4 in respect of a period of pensionable service equal to the period in excess of that prescribed in regulation C2(3).

11 Reduction of compensation in certain cases

Where an entitled officer who is in receipt of an annual allowance under regulation 4 enters or continues in employment which would constitute NHS employment for the purposes of regulation S2 of the Pension Scheme Regulations (reduction of pension on return to NHS employment), the annual rate of that allowance together with any pension payable under those Regulations shall not exceed the rate at which the compensation would have been paid if the aggregate of the allowance and pension had been a pension liable to reduction under the said regulation S2.

12 Supply of information

Any person to whom compensation is payable under these Regulations shall furnish all such information as the Secretary of State may at any time require for the purposes of these Regulations and that person shall verify the same in such manner, including the production of documents in his possession or control, as may reasonably be required.

13 Compensation not assignable

(1) Any assignment of, or charge on, or any agreement to assign or charge, any right to compensation under these Regulations is void.

(2) On the bankruptcy of an entitled officer, no part of the compensation shall be paid to any trustee or other person acting on behalf of the creditors, except as provided for in paragraph (3).

(3) Where, following the bankruptcy of an entitled officer, the court makes an income payments order under section 310 of the Insolvency Act 1986 that requires the Secretary of State to pay all or part of the compensation to the entitled officer's trustee in bankruptcy, the Secretary of State shall comply with that order.

14 Miscellaneous provisions relating to payment of compensation

(1) Subject to paragraph (2), where, on the death of a person to whom compensation is payable under these Regulations, any sum is due to or in respect of that person, the Secretary of State may pay it to any person claiming to be the personal representative of that person or to be entitled to a share of it, and may do so without requiring proof of the title of the person concerned.

(2) Paragraph (1) does not apply if the total of the sum referred to in that paragraph when added to any sum payable under the Pension Scheme Regulations exceeds the specified amount.

(3) In paragraph (2), the "specified amount" means £5,000 or any higher amount which is for the time being specified in an order made under section 6(1) of the Administration of Estates (Small Payments) Act 1965 as the amount to be treated as substituted for references to £500 in section 1 of that Act.

15 Determination of questions

Any question arising as to the rights or liabilities of any person under these Regulations shall be determined by the Secretary of State and any dispute shall be resolved by the Secretary of State in accordance with the dispute resolution procedure issued from time to time by him in conformity with section 50 of the Pensions Act 1995 .

16 Revocations and savings

(1) The Regulations specified in Column 1 of Schedule 2 are revoked to the extent specified in Column 2 of that Schedule.

(2) Anything done under, or by virtue of, any regulation revoked by these Regulations shall, if it could have been done under or for the purpose of the corresponding provision of these Regulations, be deemed to have been done under or by virtue of the corresponding provision of these Regulations, and anything begun under, or by virtue of, any such regulation may be continued under these Regulations as if begun under these Regulations.

Schedule 1

Calculation of Reductions to Take Account of Pension Benefits in Respect of Further Employment

Regulation 10(1)

(1) There shall be deducted from the amount of the annual allowance payable at the material date to the entitled officer an amount calculated in accordance with the formula-

$A \times B \times D$  or  $E$  (whichever is the lesser).

(2) Where a lump sum has been paid in respect of the further employment, there shall be deducted from the annual allowance an additional amount calculated in accordance with the formula-

$A \times C \times D$  or  $E$  (whichever is the lesser).

2 For the purposes of paragraph 1-

(a) A is the period of the additional period of service expressed in years which overlaps the period of pensionable service on which was based the calculation of the benefit referred to in regulation 10(1), where the additional period of service is deemed to commence on the material date;

(b) B is the fraction that was used in the calculation of the annual allowance referred to in regulation 4(2) for each year of the additional period of service;

(c) C is the fraction that was used in calculating the lump sum referred to in regulation 4(3);

(d) D is the entitled officer's remuneration at the material date in respect of which the compensation payable under regulation 4 was calculated; and

(e) E is the entitled officer's remuneration in respect of the further employment by reference to which the benefit referred to in regulation 10(1) was calculated, less an amount calculated in accordance with paragraph 3.

(1) The amount of the deduction from the remuneration in respect of the further employment referred to in paragraph 2(e) shall be calculated by multiplying the amount of that remuneration by a fraction of which-

(a) the numerator is equivalent to the aggregate of the amount of increases which would have been provided for under the provisions of section 59 of the Social Security Pensions Act 1975 (increase of official pensions) during the period beginning on the material date and ending on the day the further employment terminated, on an official pension of £100 per year which commenced from the material date; and

(b) the denominator is equivalent to the aggregate of an official pension of £100 per year and the amount of the increases so determined.

(2) For the purposes of this paragraph "official pension" shall have the meaning assigned to it by section 5(1) of the Pensions (Increase) Act 1971 (scope of Act, and general powers to extend and adapt increases).

4 The deduction in accordance with paragraph 1(1) shall be made in such instalments over such a period of time as the Secretary of State may allow.

5 In this Schedule "further employment" means the further employment referred to in regulation 10(1).
