

England Infected Blood Support Scheme (EIBSS) Application form for lump sum payment for bereaved spouses/partners

Notes to applicants

Please complete this form and return it to the EIBSS if you were the co-habiting spouse/partner of an EIBSS registrant whose cause of death was linked to hepatitis C and/or HIV.

You need to declare that you were the spouse/partner of the registrant at the time of their death and to provide proof of ID and evidence that your spouse/partner's death was linked to hepatitis C and/or HIV. You also need to provide recent evidence that you were cohabiting, for example a joint utility bill, joint council tax bill, joint bank statement, joint lease or mortgage document, etc., unless it is stated on the death certificate. If you can't provide documentary evidence to prove you were cohabiting and it is not stated on the death certificate, please complete the Referee Form - Appendix 1 at the back of this form. You will need to confirm your circumstances and explain why you are unable to provide documentary evidence in Section A, and arrange for someone who can act as a referee for you to complete and sign a declaration in Section B. The referee must:

- Be a professional person (including those who are retired) for example, bank or building society officials, police officers, civil servants, ministers of religion and people with professional qualifications like teachers, accountants, engineers and solicitors, and;
- Have known about you at the time of your spouse/partner's death, and;
- Not be related to you (by birth or marriage) or in a personal relationship with you and must not live at your address.

England Infected Blood Support Scheme - Privacy notice

The NHSBSA will process the information supplied by the charities who previously provided the service for the purposes of administering payments under the EIBSS.

The NHSBSA is providing this service, as it is legally obliged to do so under the NHS Business Services Authority (Awdurdod Gwasanaethau Busnes y GIG) (Infected Blood Payments Scheme) Directions 2017.

The NHSBSA can be contacted at the following address: FREEPOST EIBSS (valid within the UK only) or at EIBSS, Skipton House, 80 London Road, London SE1 6LH.

Data sharing

Your information may be shared with other people/organisations including, but not limited to, the following:

- Administrators of other Infected Blood Support Schemes in the UK to ensure you are directed to the correct scheme.
- Medical professionals for the assessment of any future applications/appeals made.
- The Department of Health for planning and information purposes.

The information may be shared for the purposes of preventing fraud and error.

By accepting this information and continuing with your claim you consent to the disclosure of relevant information to the NHSBSA and any other relevant parties they may share it with as outlined above.

Your information will not be transferred outside the EU unless you, at any time, reside outside of that area and the transfer is required in order to write to you regarding the service and/or to make payments to the appropriate bank.

How long we will keep your information

Your information will be retained for seven years following the date of the final payment being made to you or any of your dependents.

Your rights

Information you provide to the NHSBSA will be managed as required by relevant Data Protection law including the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

You have the right to:

- Receive a copy of the information the NHSBSA holds about you.
- Request your information be changed if you believe it was not correct at the time you provided it.
- Request that your information be deleted if you believe the NHSBSA is processing it for longer than is necessary to make payments under the EIBSS.
