

NHS Pensions – Form to claim death benefits and/or an allocated pension, or report the death of a member or pensioner

Supporting Information

Before completing the claim form please read these notes and the Survivors Guide which is available on our website at www.nhsbsa.nhs.uk/nhs-pensions

Please complete all sections of the enclosed claim form. You can ask someone to help you, for example a relative or a solicitor.

If the deceased had a Money Purchase Additional Voluntary Contributions (MPAVC) contract, please send a copy of the death certificate to their NHS MPAVC provider. The NHS MPAVC provider can only make payment of any MPAVC benefit after NHS Pensions has issued payment of its benefits.

If a lump sum on death is payable

NHS Pensions must inform the personal representative of any lump sum on death paid. This is because the lump sum may be subject to a Lifetime Allowance charge (LTAC). The liability to pay tax any tax charge lies with the person or organisation receiving the lump sum.

NHS Pensions must also inform the personal representative of the following information within three months of the final payment:

- The amount and date of any lump sum paid in respect of the member
- The percentage of the standard Lifetime Allowance used by any lump sum in respect of the member

The personal representative is the person responsible for administering the estate of the deceased. This is a wide definition and does not have to be a formal appointment – the surviving spouse/civil partner/scheme partner is not necessarily the personal representative.

Any adult dependant's pension does not form part of the member's Lifetime Allowance.

Do not delay the claim as the lump sum on death must be paid within two years of the date upon which the Scheme Administrator was first notified of the member's death otherwise it will be subject to a HM Revenue & Customs (HMRC) tax charge of up to 45%. NHS Pensions has no discretion and must deduct this tax charge from the lump sum payment.

Do not send the Will, any Grant of Probate, or Letters of Administration with this form. We will write to you if we need them.

The deceased may have made a valid declaration by completing a Death Benefit Nomination (DB2) even if this is the case you should still complete the form to claim the adult dependant's pension. NHS Pensions will issue a separate claim for each nominee as appropriate.

Important: all certificates or supporting documentation we ask for must be an original or certified copy (photocopies will not be accepted). Please enclose a self-addressed envelope so we can return the certificates and any other supporting information. Your claim can not be processed until all supporting documentation has been received and verified. We may write to ask you for other papers.

Where applicable a certified English translation of any certificate/document should be sent.

The following documentation is required if the deceased member's status was either divorced, dissolved civil partnership or widowed

- Decree absolute
- Dissolution certificate
- Former spouse's/civil partner's death certificate
- Birth certificate or passport for the deceased member (not required if the deceased was already in receipt of their NHS Pension)
- Member's death certificate

Married / civil partnership

If you meet both the following criteria, you are not eligible to receive an adult dependant's pension:

- Deceased member's scheme membership ceased prior to 01/04/2008, and
- You were living as husband and wife or as civil partners with another person at the member's date of death,

If you meet the following criteria, you may be eligible to receive an adult dependant's pension.

- Deceased member's scheme membership ceased prior to 01/04/2008, and
- You were not living as husband and wife or as civil partners with another person at the member's date of death, or
- Deceased member's scheme membership ceased on or after 01/04/2008

The following documentation is required to support your claim if you married or entered a civil partnership with the member either before or after they retired:

- A marriage or civil partnership registration certificate
- Your birth certificate or passport
  - Deceased members birth certificate or passport (not required if the deceased was already in receipt of their NHS Pension)
- Member's death certificate

Not married to, or in a civil partnership with the member either before or after they retired (Scheme Partner)

If you meet the following qualifying criteria, you may be eligible to receive an adult dependant's pension.

- Deceased member's scheme membership ceased on or after 01/04/2008

For a continuous period of at least two years, ending with the member's death:

- You and the deceased member were living together in an exclusive relationship, as if you were married or in a civil partnership
- The member was not married, or in a civil partnership with another person
- You were not married or in a civil partnership with another person

The following documentation is required to support your claim:

- Proof of financial interdependency (see below)
- Proof that both you and the member were not prevented from marrying each other or entering into a civil partnership together, for a continuous period of at least two years ending with the member's date of death (see below)
- Deceased members birth certificate or passport (not required if the deceased was already in receipt of their NHS Pension)
- Your birth certificate or passport
- Member's death certificate
- Power of Attorney or Court Protection Order (if appropriate)

Proof of financial interdependency

If you are claiming as a Scheme partner you will need to provide at least two forms of supporting documentation (no photocopies) from the list below:

- confirmation you have lived in a shared household
- confirmation of shared household expenditure i.e. water rates, land line telephone (not mobiles), gas, electric, council tax, TV license, house/car insurance in joint names or individual names at the same address
- shared bank accounts or investments
- a loan or mortgage in joint names (for the property you live in together) joint tenancy agreement if you lived in rented accommodation
- valid wills naming each other as the main beneficiary
- a mutual power of attorney
- your partner being nominated as the main beneficiary of any other life assurance

Note: One of these pieces of financial evidence should be dated within the months leading up to the member's death and one should be dated on or around the date that is exactly 2 years before the date of death.

Proof of marital status

If you are claiming as a Scheme partner you will also need to provide the following:

- A written statement and or documentary evidence that confirms both your and the member's marital status when the member died. Were each of you:
  - i. single (never married); or
  - ii. divorced or had a civil partnership dissolved; or
  - iii. once married or in a civil partnership but your / their former spouse/civil partner has died.

Please provide a signed written statement for both you and the member and any original documentary evidence i.e decree absolute, a dissolution certificate or death certificate for each person.

Methods of payment

We will pay the pension by direct credit into your bank or building society account. This is by far the safest method of payment. The account can be with a bank or building society:

- in the United Kingdom (we cannot pay to mortgage accounts or to National Savings Bank accounts), or
- in the Channel Isles, Isle of Man or Irish Republic, or
- overseas (provided it is one of the countries listed in the Survivors Guide and it is capable of receiving secure electronic payments of funds).

You will need to complete the relevant mandate for the payment to be made to an overseas bank account and attach it to this form. The overseas bank mandates are available from our website at: www.nhsbsa.nhs.uk/nhs-pensions

If your bank is in a country that is not listed, you will need to make arrangements to have your pension paid into a bank account in one of the listed countries. Your chosen bank will be able to help you in arranging for the funds to be forwarded to you.

If you do not have a suitable account, you will need to open one.

Supporting Information for Children's Pension Claims

We can pay a pension to:

- anyone who has care of the children, or the children if they look after themselves, or the child's own bank account, even if they are a minor.

Child can include:

- biological children;
- children of your civil partner or Scheme partner;
- stepchildren and adopted children;
- a brother, sister, nephew or niece of you, your spouse, civil partner or Scheme partner;
  - a grandchild;
- a half-brother, half-sister, stepbrother or stepsister of you, your spouse, civil partner or Scheme partner;
- children born before and within 12 months of the date you left the Scheme.

Where Scheme membership ended on or after 1 April 2008 you can claim a children's pension for anyone who:

- was dependent on the person who has died, both when membership ended and on death, and
- is under age 23 at the time of the member's death, or
- is aged 23 or over but has been permanently incapable of earning their own living because of a physical or mental impairment from which they were suffering at the date of the member's death

Where Scheme membership ended before 1 April 2008 you can claim a children's pension for anyone who:

- was dependent on the person who has died, both when membership ended and on death, and
- is under age 17, or
- is 17 or over and in full time education or training and has been so continuously since the age of 17, until they reach a maximum age of 23*, or
- They are incapable of earning a living due to permanent physical or mental infirmity from which they were suffering at the time the member died.
- is under age 23 at the time of the member's death and they are permanently incapable of earning their own living because of a physical or mental impairment from which they started to suffer after they first qualified for a pension**.

* If the member became entitled to their benefits, or died before 6 April 2006, the maximum age limit of 23 does not apply.

** If the member became entitled to their benefits, or died before 6 April 2006, the maximum age limit of 23 does not apply.

Spaces are provided for you to give information for up to four children. If you do not have enough room, please continue on a separate piece of paper and attach it firmly to this form.

Supporting Documentation required for Children's Pension

An original or acceptable certified copy of the following documentation is required to support your claim.

- Birth Certificates – send the birth certificates of all the dependants you are claiming for.
- Medical Certificates – if you are claiming for anyone who is unable to earn a living due to physical or mental impairment, please send a medical certificate (not a sick note) or a doctor's letter that explains the condition.

Where applicable an English translation of any certificate/document should be forwarded.

Declaration

You must read the declaration in full before you sign and date the application form in front of a witness and ask them to certify this by completing their details and also signing the form.

Changes you should tell us about

You should tell us immediately if:

- you change your address
- your bank or building society account details change
- you remarry, form a civil partnership or start living with someone as their spouse*
- you become aware of any other dependent children who may be entitled to a share of the total child's pension
- a child ceases full time education or a training course**
- a child reaches age 23***
- a child is admitted to hospital or other institution for a period exceeding one month
- a child moves out of the family home and wishes to claim the pension in their own right
- a child moves out of the family home and lives with a new guardian

If a pension is overpaid because you do not tell us about any of the above changes, you will have to pay back any money overpaid,

You should also tell someone to let us know of your death.
