

Release date

26 November 2020

Number	Name	Description	Benefit / Value
1	Interview panel	Employers can now: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- add up to 10 people to an interview panel in the system and assign a lead interviewer.- rearrange or assign an interviewee to an interview slot.- create interview panels or assessment centres. This includes allowing more than one interviewee to select a time slot.	More flexibility for employers when are creating interviews. Applicants can be booked in to a time slot that is suitable for them and the employer.

2	Reuse vacancy (including ESR)	Employers can now re-use a job listing that has been published before.	This will save valuable time for employers by allowing them to re-use information entered before. Employer will only need to enter a new closing date. The system will only take the employer back through the full create vacancy journey if there is any missing information. This is only likely to occur as new features are added to the service.
---	-------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

3	Investigation into PDF solutions/issues	A look into the way the current PDF works to see how to improve the issues raised. Also to look at what the options may be to mitigate the issues and risks.	To stop further issues occurring around the use of PDF's. Also provides an improved format for users which reduces the risk of issues coming up.
4	Content review	Content review across some areas of the service, such as 'review job offer' page and pause pages.	This will improve the journey for the user and ensure content is accurate and readable.
5	First line of address being missed off some organisation addresses	Improvement made to show the organisation name in the first line of an employer's address on the job review page. This which was being missed out previously.	This will ensure employers see the correct address details when creating their job listing.
6	Missing £ sign from salary during make an offer	The £ sign will now be displayed on all sections when selecting a pay range.	This will improve the content and journey for the user.

7	Update to the banner text	The banner text has been updated to inform users that the NHS Jobs website will be unavailable every Thursday during deployment of releases and essential service updates.	This will improve the user experience by being clear when the service will be available.
---	---------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Next release date

10 December 2020

Delivered by the NHS Business Services Authority