

Release date

29 April 2021

Number	Name	Description	Benefit / Value
1	Legislation change required for tier 2 sponsorship section in candidate advert	Changes driven by legislation made to the wording of the 'Tier 2 Certificate of Sponsorship' paragraph. This paragraph displays on a job advert if the vacancy is open to applicants outside of the EU and EEA. Feedback from the Customer Contact Centre advised that there was a missing hyperlink from the 'Applying from Overseas - Advice for jobseekers' page. This link is now included.	Keeps content in line with legislation. Ensures links to additional information for jobseekers are available.

2	Communication preferences	Applicants will be asked to select their communication preference when applying for a job. Preference selection will be: Email Email and telephone Email, text message and telephone If an applicant selects 'Email, text message and telephone' then they will be prompted to enter their UK mobile telephone number in order to receive SMS. The selection of a communication preference is mandatory and the applicant will not be able to progress without selecting one of the above options. Communication preferences can be changed from the 'View your application' page before the applicant sends their application.	Applicants will have control over how they receive updates and notifications on their job applications.
---	---------------------------	--	---

Next release date
6 May 2021

Delivered by the NHS Business Services Authority