1	Offer journey improvements	We've made several improvements to the offer journey. We've added two new statuses to the Ready to offer stage called 'Ready to start offer' and 'Not offered'. We've added a new page to the job offer journey. On the new page, employers can select all their successful applicants at once. On the next page they will start to make the offers. This new page means that employers can: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• select more than one applicant to offer the job to</li> <li>• choose not to offer the job to any of the applicants</li> <li>• provide an email address for unsuccessful applicants to get feedback</li> </ul> Employers can still return and offer the job to any applicants they do not select on this new page. Employers can also choose not to offer the job to anyone, or they can reject applicants individually.	Gives employers more options and flexibility when creating and sending job offers.
2	Continuous improvement	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Address finder time increased to improve performance</li> <li>• Deactivated users tag shown on more screens in the service, ensuring employers can manage their recruitment.</li> <li>• National Workforce Dataset - areas of work updated to ensure consistency. The Applicant Tracking System (ATS) Application Programming Interface (APIs) are also updated to prevent failures.</li> <li>• Employers are now prompted when there are no more users to add to a department.</li> <li>• Shortlist Leads are no longer shown in the Shortlist Panel dropdown when creating a vacancy.</li> <li>• Content change to Appendix B in the criminal convictions section. This ensures applicants have the correct information when completing their details.</li> </ul>	Continuous improvements made to improve the service for users.
