

England Infected Blood Support Scheme (EIBSS) Discretionary one-off payment application form: Respite break

Notes to applicants

Discretionary one-off payments are a form of financial support that beneficiaries may apply for to cover the cost of certain essential health related items or services.

You must apply for payment before committing to payments of any services or expenditure. Please note any payments you make before approval may not be paid.

Who can apply

To apply for the Respite break discretionary one-off payment, the applicant must be:

- An infected beneficiary registered with EIBSS

What you can apply for

A discretionary payment of up to £750 is available towards the cost of a respite break for an infected beneficiary and their carer (where required).

A respite discretionary payment can be applied for once per year.

The respite break must be recommended by a medical professional, following a period of ill-health as a direct result of the HIV and/or hepatitis C infection or its treatment. If the break is required following treatment for hepatitis C, the treatment start and end dates should be included in the supporting medical letter.

The break should be for no longer than one week and if travelling abroad, should not be considered a long-haul flight. The quotes for the break must be dated within three months of the application date.

How to apply

To apply through EIBSS, the applicant must send:

- A completed discretionary one-off payment application form; and
- Two quotes from a travel agent on letter headed paper or internet pages which show the full itinerary of the break.

Please complete sections 1-5 of the form.

Sections 6 and 7 must be completed by a medical professional (i.e. your GP or consultant) to whom you should give the form after you have completed and signed sections 1-5.
