

How to apply for a job in NHS Jobs user guide – Add further information

This guide gives you instructions for how to add further information for your application in the NHS Jobs service.

If the employer has added them and depending on the role, you'll need to answer further information questions.

If you've previously applied for a role and saved your application information, you can use this to apply.

If you have any draft applications, you can view this information to help you with your most recent application.

If you save your application information, you can use it to apply for other roles and any previous information will be replaced.

What information you might have to tell the employer

This page gives you instructions for how to check what information you might have to tell the employer.

Important: You'll only see this page if the employer has added this question.

Read the information on the page and complete the following step:

1. Select the 'Continue' button.

The screenshot shows a web page for NHS Jobs. At the top, there is a blue header with the NHS logo and 'Jobs' text. On the right side of the header, there is a 'Sign out' button and language options for 'English' and 'Cymraeg'. Below the header, there is a 'BETA' notice: 'Your feedback will help us to improve this service.' A navigation link '< Go back' is visible. The main heading is 'Training and Support Officer application' followed by 'What information you might have to tell the employer'. The text explains that the application is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974, meaning employers can obtain a standard or enhanced disclosure through the DBS. It details what a standard disclosure includes (spent and unspent criminal convictions, cautions, etc.) and what an enhanced disclosure includes (other relevant non-conviction information, children's and adults barred lists). It notes that this information is only viewed after an interview invitation and is treated confidentially. A tip box with a blue vertical bar on the left contains the text: 'You should read the DBS filtering guide \(opens in a new tab\) before you complete and send your application. You'll find out what information is shared about you as part of a DBS check, or the type of information you should include in this part of your application.' At the bottom of the page, there is a green 'Continue' button with a yellow circle containing the number '1'. The footer contains links for 'Privacy policy', 'Terms and conditions', 'Accessibility Statement', 'Cookies', and 'Help and guidance', along with the copyright notice '© Crown copyright'.

Tip: You can select the 'DBS filtering guide' link for more information.

Do you have any convictions and/or cautions that are not protected?

This page gives you instructions for how to confirm if you have any convictions and/or cautions that are not protected.

Important: You'll only see this page if the employer has added this question.

To confirm if you have any convictions and/or cautions that are not protected, complete the following steps:

1. Select an answer:
 - ‘Yes’
 - ‘No’
2. Select the ‘Save and continue’ button.

The screenshot shows the NHS Jobs application interface. At the top, there is a blue header with the NHS logo and 'Jobs' text, a 'Sign out' button, and language options for 'English' and 'Cymraeg'. Below the header, a 'BETA' notice states 'Your feedback will help us to improve this service.' The main content area is titled 'Training and Support Officer application' and features the question 'Do you have any convictions and/or cautions that are not protected?'. It explains that this means any that they're not eligible for filtering, as outlined in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (as amended), and also includes all convictions or Summary Hearings issued under military law while serving in the Armed Forces in the UK or any other country, where the equivalent offence in England and Wales is not protected. A tip box indicates that users should read how to tell us about their criminal record information before completing the question. Below the text, there are two radio button options: '1 Yes' and 'No'. A green '2 Save and continue' button is prominently displayed, along with a 'Save and come back later' link. The footer contains links for 'Privacy policy', 'Terms and conditions', 'Accessibility Statement', 'Cookies', and 'Help and guidance', along with a copyright notice '© Crown copyright'.

Tip: You can select the ‘criminal record’ link for more information.

When do you want to tell us about your convictions and/or cautions that are not protected?

This page gives you instructions for how to confirm when you want to tell the employer about your convictions and/or cautions that are not protected.

Important: You'll only see this page if you're adding convictions and/or cautions that are not protected.

To confirm when you want to tell the employer about your convictions and/or cautions that are not protected, complete the following steps:

1. Select an answer:
 - Now
 - Later
2. Select the 'Save and continue' button.

The screenshot shows the NHS Jobs application interface. At the top, there is a blue header with the NHS logo and 'Jobs' text. On the right side of the header, there is a 'Sign out' button and language options for 'English' and 'Cymraeg'. Below the header, a 'BETA' badge indicates that feedback will help improve the service. The main content area is titled 'Training and Support Officer application' and features the question 'When do you want to tell us about your convictions and/or cautions that are not protected?'. There are two radio button options: '1 Now - with this application.' and '2 Later - after sending this application, a member of the recruitment team will be in touch to advise how to do so.'. A green 'Save and continue' button is highlighted, and a blue link 'Save and come back later' is visible below it. At the bottom of the page, there are links for 'Privacy policy', 'Terms and conditions', 'Accessibility Statement', 'Cookies', and 'Help and guidance', along with a copyright notice '© Crown copyright'.

Details of your convictions and/or cautions that are not protected

This page gives you instructions for how to tell the employer about your convictions and/or cautions that are not protected.

Important: You'll only see this page if you're telling the employer now. You don't need to tell them about any parking offences. Don't include personal information that could be used to identify you such as your name or contact details.

Read the information on the page and complete the following steps:

1. In the convictions and/or cautions that are not protected box, enter the details.
2. Select the 'Save and continue' button.

The screenshot shows the NHS Jobs application interface. At the top, there is a blue header with the NHS logo and 'Jobs' text. On the right, there are links for 'Sign out', 'English', and 'Cymraeg'. Below the header, a 'BETA' badge is followed by the text 'Your feedback will help us to improve this service.' The main content area has a light blue background. It starts with a '< Go back' link. The title is 'Training and Support Officer application' followed by the main heading 'Details of your convictions and/or cautions that are not protected'. Below this, it says 'Here we'll need details of:' followed by a bulleted list: 'where the Court hearing was and the date', 'what the convictions were', 'what the cautions were', 'the sentence or the Court order', and 'the penalty'. A note asks to 'Include any additional information or evidence that you think we'd need to know.' A warning box states 'Do not include personal information that could be used to identify you such as your name or contact details.' Below this is a text input field with a placeholder 'Enter details of your convictions and/or cautions that are not protected'. A yellow circle with the number '1' is next to the input field. Below the field, it says 'You have 750 characters remaining'. At the bottom of the form area, there is a green button with a yellow circle and the number '2' next to it, labeled 'Save and continue'. Below the button is a link 'Save and come back later'. The footer contains links for 'Privacy policy', 'Terms and conditions', 'Accessibility Statement', 'Cookies', and 'Help and guidance', along with the copyright notice '© Crown copyright'.

Tip: You have a maximum limit of 750 characters.

Fitness to practise investigations and proceedings

This page gives you instructions for how to check the fitness to practice investigations and proceedings.

Important: You'll only see this page if the employer has added this question. The employer will not see your answers during assessments and shortlisting, but they will see them before interviews. This means any answer you give will not harm your application.

Read the information on the page and complete the following step:

1. Select the 'Continue' button.

The screenshot shows the NHS Jobs application interface. At the top, there is a blue header with the NHS logo and 'Jobs' text. On the right side of the header, there are links for 'Sign out' and language options 'English' and 'Cymraeg'. Below the header, a 'BETA' badge is followed by the text 'Your feedback will help us to improve this service.' A navigation link '< Go back' is visible. The main content area is titled 'Administrator application' and 'Fitness to practise investigations and proceedings'. It explains that users need to provide details about any fitness to practise investigations and proceedings by a regulatory or licensing body they've had. This includes a list of items: warnings, limitations, suspension or any other restrictions, conditions or sanctions placed on your registration, and time you were removed from the register. It also states that they do not need to know if you had an appeal that was upheld and you were fully exonerated. A callout box highlights that the employer will not see answers during assessment and shortlisting, but they will see them before interviews, and that any answer given will not harm the application. At the bottom of the content area, there is a green 'Continue' button with a '1' in a yellow circle next to it. The footer contains links for 'Privacy policy', 'Terms and conditions', 'Accessibility Statement', 'Cookies', and 'How to apply for jobs', along with a copyright notice '© Crown copyright'.

Are you currently subject to a fitness to practise investigation or any proceedings by a regulatory or licensing body?

This page gives you instructions for how to confirm if you're subject to a fitness to practise investigation or any proceedings by a regulatory or licensing body.

Important: You'll only see this page if the employer has added this question.

To confirm if you're subject to a fitness to practise investigation or any proceedings by a regulatory or licensing body, complete the following steps:
