

How to apply for a job – Check your equal opportunities in NHS Jobs user guide

This guide gives you instructions for how to add your equal opportunities information to your application in the NHS Jobs service.

You'll need to answer the guaranteed interview scheme and equality and diversity questions.

If you've previously applied for a role and saved your application information, you can use this to apply.

If you have any draft applications, you can view this information to help you with your most recent application.

You'll need to complete your equality and diversity monitoring information. The information collected will be treated confidentially and used for statistical purposes only, not to identify individuals.

If you save your application information, you can use it to apply for other roles and any previous information will be replaced.

Equality and diversity monitoring

There are protected characteristics set out by the Equality Act 2010. It is our duty as an employer to monitor who has protected characteristics through our recruitment, to ensure we employ a diverse and inclusive workforce.

We'll therefore ask you questions about:

- gender and gender reassignment
- marital status
- pregnancy, birth and any maternity or paternity leave for either
- sexual orientation
- age
- ethnicity
- religion

You can select 'prefer not to say' if you do not want to answer any of them.

The information we collect will be treated confidentially and used for statistical purposes only, not to identify individuals.
