Giving birth abroad application form

Information for the applicant

This form is for UK funding to give birth in the EEA and Switzerland. The eligibility criteria will differ depending on the country in which you are applying to give birth in. For more information and for the relevant eligibility criteria search 'Giving birth outside the UK' on NHS. uk. By completing this form you are confirming you have read the eligibility criteria.

Before making your application to give birth in Norway, Iceland or Liechtenstein, you should apply for a UK EHIC. You can do this by visiting www.nhs.uk/ehic

This form should only be completed when the date you are leaving the UK is confirmed, as this dictates when your health care is valid from.

You must send us a copy of your MAT B1, which you can get from your doctor or midwife, with your application. If you are unable to get a MAT B1, you can send a letter from a medical professional confirming your due date. Please include the reason why the MAT B1 cannot be obtained.

Send your complete application form by email to S2applications@nhsbsa.nhs.uk or by post to:

Overseas Healthcare Services, NHSBSA, 152 Pilgrim Street, Newcastle upon Tyne, NE1 6SN.

If you need help or have any questions about filling in this form, please contact us on +44 (0)191 218 1999, Monday to Friday between 8am and 6pm. If English is not your first language, phone this number and we will provide an interpretation service over the phone.
