

NHS Pensions - Existing nomination cancellation (NOM1)

Notes

Please read these notes before completing the form for cancelling an existing nomination, then keep them in a safe place.

1. You may use this form only if you have membership on or after 1 April 2008 in the NHS Pension Scheme. Your pensionable service may have started before 1 April 2008 but providing you have pensionable service on or after 1 April 2008 you can complete this form.
2. You may choose to cancel an existing partner nomination and/or lump sum on death benefit nomination by completing this form.
3. If you wish to amend an existing nomination you must submit a new application using form PN1 for a partner nomination or form DB2 for a lump sum on death benefit nomination.
4. Submitting this form will result in the appropriate nominations being revoked completely. This means that any benefits payable upon your death will be paid in accordance with the Scheme rules, rather than to named individual(s) or a body.
5. When you have completed and signed your form in the presence of your witness please return it to the address at the end of the form.
